

Contents

Section 1

Young Scholars of Seton Hall University Reflections

James K. Daly.
Introductory word	6
Bryan A. Scocco.
Reflection on Ukraine in the mind of Americans	8
Gupta Armaan.
Global Hands for Ukraine	11
Andrew Misura.
The role of the Ukrainian Diaspora in shaping the future of Ukraine	14
Pascal Pascal-De-Madeleine M Mukuye.
War in Ukraine: another solution to consider	16
John Taylor.
A Message of Hope	18
Sierra Rogalsky.
To Ukrainian Friends	19
Maribel Roman.
Thoughts on past and future collaborations	20
Pavlo Lushyn.
Psychological Eco-Facilitation as a Path to Post-Traumatic Growth: Trauma Integration and Personal Development	21

Section 2

Borys Grinchenko Kyiv Metropolitan University Young Sholars' Oral Testimonies

Olena Aleksandrova.
Our international cooperation	29
Anna Hedo.
Ukrainian Authors of the Oral Testimonies	31
Olha Tarasenko.
Introductory word	32
Dmytro Kolomiïets.
Kyiv in the first days of full-scale russian invasion of 2022	40
Maryna Galushko.
Life on the outskirts of Kyiv in the first months of the full-scale russian invasion of 2022	47
Olga Saraieva, Maria Saraieva.
Mariupol: the Heart of Fire and Hope	54
Andriy Kozhushyna.
My native Mariupol is under russian occupation	63
Polina Ishchenko.
The first days of the full-scale war: Kherson region, Nova Kakhovka	73
Maria Klymenko.
The life of Nikopol residents during the daily artillery shelling	80
Kateryna Vetoshko.
Volnovakha in the russian-Ukrainian war 2014 – 2024	87

Kateryna Yaniuk.
“There was only Kakhovka where we all felt at home, but they took it away”	93
Yeseniya Hnatenko.
Everyday life of Berdyansk residents under the conditions of russian ccupation	98
Polina Derkach.
The War affected everyone	107
Olena Kazimirenko.
Reflection of the russian-Ukrainian War in the Projects of Graphic Design Students at the “Universum” College of Borys Grinchenko Kyiv Metropolitan University	112
Oleksandr Bon. The beginning of Our War	121
Ruslan Kutsyk.
Memories of the first days of russia’s full-scale armed aggression against Ukraine	125
Pavlo Zhuravskyi, Maria Prokopchuk.
Students’ Government Council: challenges in wartime	130
Kristina Gidzhelitska, Maria Prokopchuk.
Janusz Korczak: surviving during the war in modern conditions	133
Viktoria Kachanovska, Maria Prokopchuk.
Peculiarities of the coordinator’s work during the war: practical aspect	135
Ruslana Temnyk, Maria Prokopchuk.
Ukrainian youth in Europe: experience of emigration	137
Information about the authors	139